

TOWELRADS LAMBOURN

Boasting a sleek and stylish mitre square design with round bars, the Lambourn offers excellent heat output in a radiator you can be proud of. Round bars encased within a square frame mean that this radiator will compliment other square fixtures and fittings as well as round – you can change the look of your room without needing to replace your rail!

Safety tested at 13 bar pressure.

Tested to BS EN 442 standards.
